Top 9 Famous Women In History

Jill Lepore | The Wall Street Journal Sometimes history skews female. Here are nine of the women who helped shape it.

1. Cleopatra VII The 7th-century B.C. Egyptian queen is a household name. She became an important figure in Roman history. She was the last ruler of Egypt before Rome. Cleopatra is also considered a legendary beauty and is the reason for the famous saying "As pretty as the dawn, as bright as the moon, as graceful as the sea..."
2. Queen Victoria The queen reigns supreme in Britain, as well as in many countries around the world. She is also known as the mother of the 20th century. During her reign, she was born as the eighth child of her family. Victoria became queen at age 19, which is quite young for the position. She was born and died in the same city, and this made her reign very long. She was born on June 28 and died on January 22, 1901. 3. Sarah Bronson Sarah Bronson was the mother of Benjamin Franklin, the first president of the United States. She married a shopkeeper, and he had five sons. After he died, she was left with four children. Benjamin Franklin, being the son of a shopkeeper, was a poor student. He was forced to drop out of school in Philadelphia. Instead of becoming a merchant like his father, he worked as a printer. He worked his way up to become a successful man in his field. 4. Eleanor Roosevelt Eleanor Roosevelt was the wife of Franklin D. Roosevelt, the president of the United States. She was born on October 27, 1884. She grew up in Hyde Park, New York. She started as a newspaper reporter. Her husband, Franklin, 77a5ca646e
